

2007 FACT SHEET

Downtown Providence was invaded August 7-12 for the Eleventh Annual Rhode Island International Film Festival. 237 filmmakers, cast and crew from around the world came to exhibit their films, meet with distributors and compete for the Festival's top prizes. The Festival is accredited by the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences as a qualifier for Oscar in the Best Short (Live Action) category. The Opening Night Program took place at the historic and restored Providence Performing Arts Center (PPAC). Sony Corporation sponsorship provided the Festival with the latest High Definition projection technology for screenings at the Columbus Theatre. The Festival was cited by Chris Gore in "The Ultimate Film Festival Survival Guide, 3rd edition (2004), as one of the Best International and Short Festivals in the United States and "One of the most exciting new festivals to come along, Rhode Island International Film Festival aggressively supports its filmmakers." Travel Smart Magazine in 2006 also cited RIIFF as one of the "Top 12 Film Festivals in the United States."
