Flickers, now in its 36th Year, produces video, audio and film about the arts for television, festivals and other non-profit organizations. Flickers creates and produces educational programs that teach about the media arts. From the acclaimed Rhode Island International Film Festival held each August to the Vortex Sci-Fi, Fantasy & Horror Film Festival held in October to Flickers' award-winning arts and cultural programming "Between Takes," to the 7DayPSA Competition, the Creative Impulse Awards to the acclaimed PBS programming "double-FEATURE" to the Youth Film Jury and Community Outreach Programs, Flickers has brought cutting-edge live performances, great films and interviews with leading artists to international audiences.

The Flickers' Rhode Island International Film Festival™ (RIIFF) is the largest festival in New England, screening 275 titles in six days with an attendance in 2017 topping 43,000 for year-round events. Films screened came from 60 countries and 34 states in the U.S. There were 95 World Premieres and North American Premieres. RIIFF is considered "One of the most exciting festivals to come along," says Chris Gore in the Ultimate Film Festival Survival Guide. It is also a qualifying festival for the Live Action, Animation and Documentary Short Film Academy Awards through its affiliation with the Academy of Motion Picture Arts & Sciences. Out of over 7,000 film festivals held world-wide, only 6 have this affiliation. RIIFF is also one of only ten (10) Festivals in the United States that is a qualifier for the British Academy Awards (BAFTA) and now the Canadian Screen Awards.

KidsEye™ Summer Filmmaking Camp

A Flickers' Production

JULY 9-13, 2018

9:00 a.m. - 3:00 p.m.

University of Rhode Island, Kingston, RI

COST: $395

Now in its 20th year, the KidsEye™ Summer Filmmaking Camp is an intensive and fun five-day summer camp held at the University of Rhode Island that exposes young people to the world of filmmaking that culminates in a Red Carpet Premiere screening of their finished work at the Rhode Island International Film Festival.

Participants learn the basics of filmmaking through workshops on screenwriting, camera, media literacy, storyboarding, acting, directing, and production. Activities are hands-on and culminate in the production of short films directed by and starring KidsEye participants. For children and teens ages 8 through 17.

The cost for the KidsEye Summer Camp Program for 2018 is $395 and includes: The KidsEye Educational Guide, Official KidsEye T-shirt, Vimeo access to the Camp films, and free admission to the KidsEye International Film Festival, as well as the World Premiere of the films made during the camp with a Red Carpet Premiere in August. Limited Scholarship opportunities are available. Please contact us for details.
